

AHIMA's 78th Convention and Exhibit: Reaching New Heights in Denver

Save to myBoK

Approximately 4,000 HIM professionals and 244 exhibitors attended AHIMA's 78th Convention and Exhibit in Denver, CO-making it one of AHIMA's most successful conventions ever! Those in attendance had a myriad of networking and educational opportunities from which to choose, from the various networking breakfasts to sessions on EHRs and HIEs. Speakers included David Brailer, MD, PhD, former National Coordinator for Health Information Technology, Bertrice Berry, PhD, sociologist, author, and lecturer, and Lou Holtz, former coach of the Notre Dame football team.

Some of the highlights of the convention are included here for those who weren't able to make it to this year's convention. Make plans now to attend this year's convention and exhibit in Philadelphia, PA, October 6–11.

Brailer to HIM: Continue 'Larger, Louder, and Faster'
House Approves Changes to Membership Categories
Resolution on the Legal Health Record
Student Academy Focuses on Getting That First Job
Is Your Electronic Record a Legal Record?

Article citation:

. "AHIMA's 78th Convention and Exhibit: Reaching New Heights in Denver" Journal of AHIMA 78, no.1 (January 2007): 50-55.

Driving the Power of Knowledge

Copyright 2022 by The American Health Information Management Association. All Rights Reserved.